

Division 3 District Football Playoffs

East Lansing vs. DeWitt @ Lynn C. Adams Stadium

Friday, November 1, 2019

20/20 Vision

East Lansing junior running back Alex Hosey has an empty end zone ahead of him as he outraces DeWitt defensive back Tyler Holtz (20) to score the Trojans' first touchdown on a 62-yard run.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Long gone

East Lansing junior running back Alex Hosey leaves DeWitt defender Tyler Holtz (20) face down in the turf en route to his eighth rushing touchdown of the season.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Lining up

East Lansing quarterback Sam Busch (18) looks downfield for sophomore receiver Mason Woods (11) during Friday's game against DeWitt.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Wrapping up

East Lansing junior receiver Andrel Anthony Jr. caught 10 passes for 157 yards and one touchdown against DeWitt.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Eyes downfield

East Lansing senior quarterback Sam Busch completed 13 of 29 passes for 177 yards and one touchdown in the loss to DeWitt. For the season, Busch completed 104 of his 179 passing attempts for 1,537 yards and 15 touchdowns. Busch was intercepted four times this season, including twice in Friday's loss to DeWitt.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Ready to launch

East Lansing quarterback releases a pass before DeWitt defender Cooper Brumfield can get to him.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Collision course

Andrel Anthony Jr. is the center of attention as he lunges for extra yardage during the second quarter of Friday's game at Lynn C. Adams Stadium.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Blue by you

The DeWitt sideline reactions – including head coach Rob Zimmerman (far right) – indicate where this play is headed. Andrel Anthony Jr. (1) catches a perfectly thrown pass from quarterback Sam Busch and the result is a 65-yard scoring play for East Lansing.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Airborne

Mason Woods and Andrel Anthony Jr. are flying high after the latter scored on a 65-yard pass play in the third quarter of Friday's game.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Fly pattern

Mason Woods (11) and Andrel Anthony Jr. take flight after celebrating Anthony's touchdown reception in the third quarter of Friday's district playoff game against DeWitt.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Nine by Nine

DeWitt running back Blake Beachnau (9) looks for an opening in the East Lansing defense as cornerback Jesse Vasquez (9) closes in to make a tackle. Beachnau carried 16 times for 110 yards; his longest run of the night went for 22 yards.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Under pressure

East Lansing quarterback Sam Busch (18) gets hit as he releases the ball while fullback Jamar Mills (3) tries to prevent DeWitt defensive end Mason Gilbert (88) from knocking down the pass.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Jump ball

Neither Tyler Washington (30) nor Andre Anthony Jr. (1) can get to this ball while being defended by DeWitt linebackers Andrew DeBri (45) and Grant Uyl (4). Defensive back Tommy McIntosh (10) provides support for the Panthers, who will square off against St. Johns for the district championship.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Straight ahead

DeWitt running back Grant Uyl (4) follows the blocking of Conner Pochert (50) while East Lansing defenders Jesse Vasquez (9), Jamar Mills (3) and Ambrose Wilson (10) move in to make the tackle.

Mills was credited with a game-high 22 tackles for the Trojans.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Watch him!

Senior linebacker Jamar Mills (3) signals to sophomore defensive back Ambrose Wilson (10) while DeWitt quarterback Andrew Schorfhaar (2) calls a play at the line of scrimmage. Schorfhaar completed two of four passes for the Panthers, who ran the ball 58 times for 307 yards against East Lansing.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Step and throw

DeWitt quarterback Andrew Schorfhaar (2) looks for an open receiver downfield during Friday night's game against East Lansing.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Pressure's on

DeWitt linebacker Cameron Reynolds (19) tries to contain Andre Anthony Jr. (1) on a fourth quarter kickoff return. Anthony Jr. returned four kicks for 79 total yards; his longest return went for 37 yards.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Where'd he go?

Andrel Anthony Jr. eludes the tackle attempt of DeWitt's Cameron Reynolds, who tries in vain to take down the Trojan kick returner.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Clutch grab

East Lansing receiver Andrel Anthony Jr. (1) secures the ball in front of DeWitt defensive back Luke Bresser (8) and linebacker Andrew Debri.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

On its way

East Lansing quarterback Sam Busch (18) follows through on a pass during Friday's district playoff game against DeWitt.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

In his grasp

Midway through the fourth quarter, Andre Anthony Jr. tries to break free from DeWitt cornerback Luke Bresser. Anthony finished the season with 54 receptions for 954 yards and nine touchdowns.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Explain yourself

East Lansing head coach Bill Feraco discusses a line judge's ruling that his inadvertent whistle did not nullify a DeWitt interception in the fourth quarter of Friday's game.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

Celebration time

With time winding down in the fourth quarter, DeWitt players celebrate a change of possession against East Lansing. DeWitt's defense limited the Trojans to a total of 74 yards rushing – 62 of which came on Alex Hosey's second quarter touchdown run.

(Photo by Raymond Holt)

